To whom it may concern.

INCE Europe run the series of conferences called "International Conferences on Wind Turbine Noise". We accept papers for these conferences which we distribute electronically to delegates at the conferences and subsequently sell as part of the proceedings of each conference.

The authors of these papers, by submitting them for the conference, allow INCE Europe to distribute or sell the papers in this way but the Intellectual Property Rights of the papers remain with the Authors.

Dick Bowdler

Director, INCE Europe
